

THE NEWS FROM THE OLD NORTH STATE AND ITS CAPITAL.

OUR RALEIGH NEWS LETTER

Governor Russell Gives a Reception to Leading Republican.

STRANGE FRIENDLINESS

A Secret Conference at the Yarbboro-Cannons, Hold White Republicans in Line Against the Franchise Amendment-Postal Notes-Leave of Absence-State Deposits-Collection of Back Taxes.

Raleigh, N. C., July 21.-Governor Russell gave a reception to many leading Republicans last night at the mansion. It ended in a conference at the Yarbboro for the betterment of Russell and Pritchard and some others. It has caused no end of comment, this friendliness between Russell, Pritchard, Walker and some others. The result of the conference is secret. Some of them are upset because Governor Russell wants it to appear that if they all did not repudiate the mansion they would miss seeing Senator Pritchard, so it was settled they would go to the reception and talk politics later in Chairman Holten's room at the Yarbboro. This was done.

CAN'T HOLD THE WHITES.

The Republicans say they are willing to admit they fear they cannot hold the Eastern white Republicans in line against the negro franchise amendment. The vote is very doubtful, and that concession is a fatal one for them. No negroes were admitted to the conference held yesterday and last night.

POSTAL NOTES.

The following postmasters were today appointed for the State of North Carolina:

At Raleigh, Henderson county-G. S. Wall, vice F. C. Hamrick, resigned; at Roblin, Cumberland county-L. B. Willis, vice G. A. Hall, removed.

The leave of absence granted Captain Zebulon B. Vance, Eleventh United States Infantry, to special orders No. 126, June 19, 1899, Department of Porto Rico, is extended fourteen days.

STATE DEPOSITS.

The directors of the North Carolina railroad, at their recent meeting, decided to deposit the State's money from the road in different banks over the State. The fusionists, when they got control of things, made the entire deposit in the National Bank of Wilmington. Now it will be divided between the National Bank at Wilmington, State National Bank at Durham, Fidelity Bank of Durham, and the First National Bank of Charlotte.

BACK TAXES.

The City Attorney is directing his attention to the collection of back taxes. He has recently, at a tax sale, purchased 100 lots, on which the taxes were unpaid, and unless the owners pay the lots pay these taxes very soon, the city will take a deed to the property.

OPPOSING VIEWS.

Chairman Holten and Collector Duncan say that all Republicans who vote for the amendment are no longer Republicans, but other leaders say this cannot be done.

HERTFORD.

PERSONAL NOTES-AN AMUSING TRIAL

Hertford, N. C., July 22.-Mrs. M. H. White and Corine M. C. White have returned from a trip North.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Newby, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Whedbee, Mrs. Seth Whedbee and daughter, Mrs. E. V. Newby, Misses Virginia Newby, Kate Morris, Kate Riddick, Nellie Blount and Catherine Newby have returned from an enjoyable trip to Nag's Head.

The Newby House Hotel is entertaining quite a number of permanent and transient boarders.

Sixteen colored boys were arranged before Justice Newby on a charge of assault and battery upon Willis Cooper, a negro loafer. The boys were dealt with according to the proportion of fun they had in the matter. Cooper carried a bandaged head resulting from his collision with a brick bat. His Honor asked Cooper if he fell when the brick hit him. His answer was: "Me was on de Lord's side, and me drew me pistol and shot at him (the brick thrower) an' he Lord set me down in er man's yard and me ast him foh watch." Cooper was indicted for a longer term, and was recognized for his appearance at court. This Cooper has been loafing around town for about three years. He is a healthy six-foot and cannot be hired to work. He is continually in a scrape with some one and always gets the bad end of the bargain.
